KAYLA PAINTER

"Utterly intriguing"

- Adam Walton, BBC Radio Wales

"Minimal, ambient, incredibly hypnotic, something you'd definitely hear sitting nicely in a Gilles Peterson late night mix"

- Jo Whitby, Cat On The Wall Webzine

"A gentle and subtle journey of quirky samples, floaty ambience, interesting rhythms, sultry vocals and the odd bit of low end to keep you on your toes. It is a laid back affair that is suited to end of the day listening, or maybe a lazy Sunday afternoon."

- Gustave Savy, Igloo Mag

A welcome female addition to the usual boys club of Electronic producers, Bristol based musician, producer and visual artist KAYLA PAINTER has spent the last few years carving a solid reputation herself around Bristol and the South West with her distinctive, layered soundscapes and compositions.

Heavily influenced by Bristol's legendary bass heritage, Kayla's sound has often said to be compared to that of BURIAL, NICOLAS JAAR, MOUNT KIMBIE and FOUR TET, while her hypnotising and unique live AV shows combine her pulsing basslines and delicate sample and textures over her own bespoke visuals.

After self-releasing her eponymous debut EP in 2012 to a warm reception, and having played such events as Southampton's PULSE FESTIVAL, Bristol's iconic party ship THEKLA, and recent support slots with Finnish Electro-pop artist & BJÖRK-Protégé HK119 in London, and the legendary AFRIKA BAMBAATAA in Bristol, Kayla has now joined the ranks of London based Electronic Music label BIT-PHALANX.

On MON 26th AUG 2013, Bit-Phalanx will re-issue a revised edition of the 'KAYLA PAINTER' debut EP as a free download, remastered and with an exclusive bonus track. The re-issue paves the way for Kayla's all new EP 'A VERY NEW EVERYTHING' which will be receive a full CD & Digital release on MON 7th OCT 2013 through Bit-Phalanx.
